About Joel R. McClellan

Joel McClellan is a zealous advocate dedicated to securing the best outcomes for his clients. Since joining Marks & Harrison in 2013, Joel has successfully represented hundreds of clients both inside and outside the courtroom. His extensive experience in civil litigation includes numerous victories in bench and jury trials across Virginia. He is currently a partner and shareholder at Marks & Harrison.

Experienced Leader

Joel's commitment to the legal profession is reflected in his leadership roles. He is a former Chair of the Young Trial Lawyers for the Virginia Trial Lawyers Association (VTLA) and continues to serve on its Board of Governors. Additionally, Joel is a member of the Richmond Bar Association's Board of Directors and serves on the Executive Committee of the Lewis F. Powell Inn of Court as Membership Chair.

Joel also serves on the Board of Directors for the Central Virginia Legal Aid Society (CVLAS), reflecting his commitment to providing access to justice for all.

Elected by His Peers

In 2022, Joel was elected to the Virginia State Bar Council by his peers, representing the 14th Judicial Circuit (Henrico). Bar Council is an 81-member body responsible for representing attorneys across the Commonwealth. Joel's election followed the appointment of the Hon. MARRISA D. MITCHELL to the Henrico Juvenile and Domestic Relations District Court.

Educational Foundation & Professional Development

During law school, Joel interned with Judge M. Hannah Lauck of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia. He also gained hands-on experience mediating civil disputes at the Valparaiso Law Mediation Clinic. Joel graduated from law school with honors, demonstrating his commitment to excellence from the start of his career.

Beyond the Office

When away from his desk, Joel enjoys spending time with his wife and two young children. He is also an avid golfer and sports fan, cheering for the Virginia Tech Hokies, Washington Nationals, and Washington Commanders.
